Clue 6 REVEAL

Time to solve (or dissolve Bobbin's back injury) our beauty. There are so many hidden stories in this design. From tear drops in the corners to you all circling the wagons to pray for our fur baby, those stories are represented here. This design will forever tell Bobbin's story and how this miracle will forever be with us. I will stop babbling and just show this to you!

Here is Bobbin's Miracle:

Since I did the largest size possible, I am leaving mine here. No borders, just binding with the remainder of my maroon fabric scraps. If I did add a border, it would only be a "frame" no more than 2" to 3" wide complete in my black (background), still binding with the maroon.

Can't wait to get it sewn together and on my bed for the winter!
