Clue 6 REVEAL

We are ready to lay out this amazing explosion of colour! I am so anxious for this, I can hardly wait! The first pic is your “map” on how things are rotated and laid out. The pic on page 2 will have the border so you can see how I did it.

Here is Dynamite!

I would just warn you about the snail trails... they are opposite each other on each row... easy once you see it in a pic. TOO MUCH FUN!!!!

Now with the border laying beside the centre. Can't wait to see your finishes!! I didn't lay the border along the bottom of the design, because I didn't think it would show in the pic!! OOPS!

Can't wait to see your version. ENJOY!!

The next page has mine complete and ready for quilting...

Oh I just love this one!!!
